1st Verse.

Tick-tock tickety tock,
Here's a song about a clock,
There on the mantelpiece it stands,
Cov'ring its face with both its hands;
Every morning as sure as fate,
It wakes you up at exactly eight,
It spoils your rest and it shouts the time
And these are the words it seems to chime.
Get up, you lout,
Time to turn out,
Get up, it's eight,
You will be late.

Where the moonlit roadway ends.
